

2 Nephi 3–5

Monte F. Shelley

The path of unhappiness is paved with great expectations.

1. Finding Fault with God

God is all loving, omniscient, omnipotent, and omnipresent.

“Laman and Lemuel ... did murmur because they knew not the dealings of that God who had created them” (1 Ne 2:12).

2. Agency: ability or authority to act

Free agency: aware of two or more choices and able to act.

Moral agency (D&C 101:78): _____

How did God give agency in the Garden of Eden (Moses 7:32)?

1. Agency: Body (a) desires of flesh and (b) able to eat

2. Free agency: Many choices for food

3. Moral agency:

- a. (Moses 6:56)
- b. (Moses 3:17)
- c. (2 Ne 2:15)
- d. (D&C 29:39; 2 Ne 2:16)
- e.

Inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments

ye shall prosper in the land;

and inasmuch as ye will not keep my commandments

ye shall be cut off from my presence. (2 Ne 4:4)

3. Finding Fault with Self

There are no mistakes, only _____.

4. Learn wisdom (“soundness of judgment in the choice of means and ends.” SOED)

Good judgment comes from experience, and Experience comes from _____

5. Psalm of Nephi (2 Ne 4:15–35)

¹⁶ Behold, my soul delighteth in the things of the Lord; and my heart pondereth continually upon the things which I have seen and heard. ¹⁷ Nevertheless, notwithstanding the great goodness of the Lord, in showing me his great and marvelous works, my heart exclaimeth: O wretched man that I am!

Yea, my heart sorroweth because of my flesh;

my soul grieveth because of mine iniquities.

¹⁸ I am encompassed about, because of the temptations and the sins which do so easily beset me. ¹⁹ And when I desire to rejoice, my heart groaneth because of my sins;

nevertheless, I know in whom I have trusted.

²⁰ My God hath been my support;

he hath led me through mine afflictions in the wilderness;

and he hath preserved me upon the waters of the great deep.

²¹ He hath filled me with his love,

even unto the consuming of my flesh.

²² He hath confounded mine enemies, [who? _____] unto the causing of them to quake before me.

²³ Behold, he hath heard my cry by day, and he hath given me knowledge by visions in the night-time.

²⁴ And by day have I waxed bold in mighty prayer before him; yea, my voice have I sent up on high; and angels came down and ministered unto me.

²⁵ And upon the wings of his Spirit hath my body been carried away upon exceedingly high mountains. And mine eyes have beheld great things, yea, even too great for man; therefore I was bidden that I should not write them.

²⁶ O then, if I have seen so great things, if the Lord in his condescension unto the children of men hath visited men [PM=me] in so much mercy,

^A why should my heart weep and my soul linger in the valley of sorrow,

^B and my flesh waste away, and my strength slacken, because of mine afflictions?

^{C a 27} And why should I yield to sin, because of my flesh?

^b Yea, why should I give way to temptations, that the evil one have place in my heart to destroy my peace and afflict my soul?

^c Why am I angry because of mine enemy?

^{A a 28} Awake, my soul! No longer droop in sin.

^b Rejoice, O my heart, and give place no more for the enemy of my soul.

^{c 29} Do not anger again because of mine enemies.

^B Do not slacken my strength because of mine afflictions.

^{A 30} Rejoice, O my heart, and cry unto the Lord, and say: O Lord, I will praise thee forever; yea, my soul will rejoice in thee, my God, and the rock of my salvation.

³¹ O Lord, wilt thou redeem my soul?

Wilt thou deliver me out of the hands of mine enemies?

Wilt thou make me that I may shake at the appearance of sin?

³² May the gates of hell be shut continually before me, because that my heart is broken and my spirit is contrite!

O Lord, wilt thou not shut the gates of thy righteousness before me, that I may walk in the path of the low valley, that I may be strict in the plain road!

³³ O Lord, wilt thou encircle me around in the robe of thy righteousness! O Lord, wilt thou make a way for mine escape before mine enemies! Wilt thou make my path straight before me! Wilt thou not place a stumbling block in my way—but that thou wouldst clear my way before me, and hedge not up my way, but the ways of mine enemy.

³⁴ O Lord, I have trusted in thee, and I will trust in thee forever. I will not put my trust in the arm of flesh; for I know that cursed is he that putteth his trust in the arm of flesh. Yea, cursed is he that putteth his trust in man or maketh flesh his arm.

³⁵ Yea, I know that God will give liberally to him that asketh.

Yea, my God will give me, if I ask not amiss;

therefore I will lift up my voice unto thee; yea, I will cry unto thee, my God, the rock of my righteousness.

Behold, my voice shall forever ascend up unto thee, my rock and mine everlasting God. Amen.

7. Covenants as Contained in the Scriptures

Lehi: The Lord covenanted that this land of promise which is “choice above all other lands” will be an inheritance for my children. If they keep his commandments, it shall be a land of liberty and they shall be blessed and prosper. If not, the land will be cursed and they shall be scattered, smitten and ruled by others. (2 Ne 1:5-9, 11)

“Abraham received the gospel and was ordained to the higher priesthood (D&C 84:14; Abr 2:11), and he entered into celestial marriage, which is the covenant of exaltation (D&C 131:1–4; 132:19, 29). Abraham received a promise that all of the blessings of these covenants would be offered to his mortal posterity (D&C 132:29–31; Abr 2:6–11).” (Guide to the Scriptures; BD)

Covenants have 6 basic parts: Author, Blessings, Curses, Duty, Enter and Remember. It is helpful to look for the ABCDER parts of covenants including sacrament and temple covenants.

Covenants help us “understand and know how to worship, and know what you worship, that you may come unto the Father in my name, and in due time receive of his fulness.” (D&C 93:19)

Abrahamic Covenant
Author: (who we worship) Abraham saw and talked with the LORD who said, “For I am the Lord thy God; I dwell in heaven; the earth is my footstool; I stretch my hand over the sea, and it obeys my voice; I cause the wind and the fire to be my chariot; I say to the mountains—Depart hence—and behold, they are taken away by a whirlwind, in an instant, suddenly. My name is Jehovah, and I know the end from the beginning.” (Abr 2:7–8)
Blessings: “I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven [posterity], and will give unto thy seed all these countries [land of Palestine]; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.” (Gen 26:4–5; Gen 15, 17) “This right [priesthood] shall continue in thee, and in thy seed after thee” (Abr 2:11).
Protection: “I will be a God unto thee and thy seed after thee” (JST, Gen 17:12). “My hand shall be over thee” (Abr 2:8).
Curses: “the uncircumcised man ... shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant” (Gen 17:14)
Duty: (how we worship) “Every man child among you shall be circumcised” (Gen 17:9). “And thou shall observe to keep all my covenants wherein I covenanted with thy fathers; and thou shall keep the commandments which I have given thee with mine own mouth” (JST, Gen 17:12). Thy seed “shall bear this ministry and Priesthood unto all nations” (Abr 2:9) “and in thy seed (that is, thy Priesthood) ... shall all the families of the earth be blessed, even with the blessings of the Gospel, which are the blessings of salvation, even of life eternal.” (Abr 2:11)
Enter: Baptism: “As many as receive this Gospel ... shall be accounted thy seed” (Abr 2:10; Gal 3:26–29). “The effect of the Holy Ghost upon a Gentile is to purge out the old blood, and make him actually of the seed of Abraham” (TPJS 150).
Circumcision: “he that is eight days old shall be circumcised” (Gen 17:12) “that thou mayest know for ever that children are not accountable before me until they are eight years old” (JST, Gen 17:11). Priesthood: “Whoso is faithful unto the obtaining these two priesthoods ..., and the magnifying their calling, ... become the sons of Moses and of Aaron and the seed of Abraham , and the church and kingdom, and the elect of God.” (D&C 84:33–34)
Remember: Sign or token: Circumcision “shall be a token of the covenant” (Gen 17:11). New name: “Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham” (Gen 17:5) which means “father of a multitude.” Written record of covenant for Abraham’s posterity to read. Renew Covenant: The LORD renewed this covenant with Isaac and Jacob/Israel (Gen 26, 28). The LORD through Elias restored the “dispensation of the gospel of Abraham” to Joseph Smith (D&C 110:12).

Mosaic Covenant
Author: Moses saw and talked with the LORD; Moses saw earth and inhabitants; LORD revealed to Moses the creation of heaven and earth, fall of Adam, Adamic covenant (obedience, sacrifice, baptism, Holy Ghost), atonement of Christ (Moses 1–6)
Blessings: prosper in goods, children, cattle, crops; lender nation; peace in the land; no war or evil beasts in land; LORD will fight your battles and walk among you. (Lev 26:4–12; Dt 28:1–14)
Curses: Famine, drought; plagues, disease, pestilence; killed by wild beasts; anarchy, lawlessness; wives violated; children enslaved; many killed by sword (war); bondage; plundered and pillaged; birds eat unburied bodies; debtor nation; eat children; enemies destroy cities and property; taken captive to other nations; scattered among all people. (Lev 26:14–39; Dt 28:15–68)
Duty: Love the LORD with heart, might, mind, strength; Love neighbor; 10 commandments; 613 commandments; “keep the judgments, ... statutes, and the commandments of the LORD ... according to the law of Moses” (2 Ne 5:10)
Enter: Sacrifices; Moses read “book of the covenant” to people who said they would obey the words of the LORD. (Ex 24)
Remember: Signs or tokens: ark of the covenant with tablets inside; Written record of covenant;
Renewal rituals: daily temple sacrifices; Sabbath day; public reading of the Law (Torah); public renewal of covenant;
Reminders: Shema: “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD: and thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.” “And these words ... shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children” and talk of them when you sit, walk, lie down, and rise up. “And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and ... as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.” (Dt 6:4–9). Put fringes (tzitzit) on the corners of garments (tallit) to remember commandments and do them. (Num 15:37)

8. Dispensations

“A gospel dispensation is a period of time in which the Lord has at least one authorized servant on the earth who bears the keys of the holy priesthood” (GS). Some dispensations are new beginnings.

Dispensation	Covenant	Closing Judgment
Adam	E: Sacrifice, baptism D: Multiply, replenish, obey B: Messiah promised	Flood
Noah	Renewed Adamic covenant R: Rainbow	Fire destroyed Sodom
Abraham	E/R: Circumcision D: Sacrifice, obey B: Posterity, land, priesthood	Captivity/bondage in Egypt. No prophet for hundreds of years
Moses	E: temple sacrifices D: 10 commandments , ... R: garments, door, Sabbath Ark of the Covenant	Temple destroyed, captivity, Jews scattered. No prophet for hundreds of years
Christ, Apostles	E: Baptism, Holy Ghost D: Sermon on the Mount . R: Sacrament	Death of apostles; no prophet for hundreds of years; scattering
Joseph Smith fulness of times	E: Baptism, Holy Ghost D: baptism/ temple covenants R: sacrament, scriptures, pray	Final judgment
Christ millennium	New and everlasting covenant renewed	End of 1000 years

9. Covenant Cycle

		Blessings
		peace, prosper, deliver
Remember obey, keep, return, repent	↗	Covenants Commandments	↖	Forget forsake, fall away, disobey, break
		Curses cut off from LORD, famine, pestilence, war, captivity	↖ God sends prophets to warn people to repent or be cut off

10. Why didn't God let Laman go back to Jerusalem?

After Lehi died, Laman and Lemuel planned to slay Nephi because they did not want him to rule over them. After the Lord warned him, Nephi fled with Zoram, Sam, Jacob, Joseph, his sisters, and their families. This fulfilled the words spoken to Nephi: “Inasmuch as [the Lamanites] will not hearken unto thy words they shall be cut off from the presence of the Lord. And ... they were cut off from his presence. And he had caused the cursing to come upon them. ... For ... they had hardened their hearts against him. ... Thus saith the Lord ... they shall be loathsome unto thy people, save they shall repent. ... They shall be a scourge unto thy seed, to stir them up in remembrance of me; and inasmuch as they will not remember me, and hearken unto my words, they shall scourge them ... unto destruction.” (2 Ne 5:20–25)

11. Temple like the temple of Solomon

“I, Nephi, did build a temple ... after the manner of the temple of Solomon. ... And ... I, Nephi, did consecrate Jacob and Joseph, that they should be priests and teachers.” (2 Ne 5:16,26)

“Jews Hold on to Temple Customs: Interpreted as a personal shield or protector, Jews wear garments with four markings, the knotted strings, on each corner of the Tallith. ... [Jews keep customs] long after their meanings have faded. For example, when visiting the Western (Wailing) Wall, you will see reminders of ancient temple worship. Men are on one side, women on the other. Head covering is used and robes (Talith) are placed on one shoulder and then another while certain words are recited. There is a sash (or ‘girdle’) tied with the bow on one side. Levites wear aprons. Some Jews still remove their shoes when approaching the Wall. Small pieces of paper are placed between the cracks of the old temple wall ... with names ... of people who require special prayers and blessings. There is a minimum of ten who form a prayer circle (Minyan) so that prayers, readings of the scriptures and instructions can be done. Someone is always at hand to assist the person reading or reciting to use correct intonations and to follow proper clothing and recitation procedures.

“‘Nail in a Sure Place’: Some practices have ceased, even though they were still in use just a hundred years ago. One of those is reflected in the thousands of old nails protruding slightly out of the cracks in the wall. An old Rabbi described them as the ‘sure nails’ pounded into the wall to fasten their sins so that people could leave their burdens and get on with life.” (Rona 7)

White may mean ‘wholeness’ or ‘completeness.’ “Garments used by religious Jews are often pure white. ‘In Ashkenazi tradition ... the bride ... wears white. ... The groom, too, stands under the canopy wearing his white kittel, or robe. ... They pray that their past sins will be forgiven and they can start their life together afresh. The white ... clothing symbolizes the purity and the forgiveness of sin for which they are hoping. For this reason a similar garment is used to clothe the dead for burial. The kittel therefore also serves to remind the wearer of how brief life is, and of the necessity for atonement.’ (EJ Jr.)” (Rona OT #39 online)

12. Agency and the War in Heaven

In the preexistence, Satan said “I will redeem all mankind, that one soul shall not be lost.” When his plan was rejected, Satan “rebelled against [God] and “sought to destroy the agency of man.” Satan and his followers were cast down. (Moses 4:1–3)

Why did God allow Satan tempt Adam, Eve, and us?

Life would certainly be easier without him! However, we would not have moral agency (D&C 29:39). Satan, Lamanites, and our modern Lamanites are here to help us be Christlike.

13. Jewish Counselor and the War in Heaven

Many parents of teenagers can relate to the following story.

One day a woman called ... for some counseling. Their problem was a rebellious teenager and an escalating power struggle between her and her parents that was getting out of hand. ... [This] is a common ... issue for family therapists. ...

I suggested that they [go my Jewish colleague who was closer]. After only a couple of weeks, I got a call from my friend. “Carl, I need some help. ... If they don’t [loosen up the parental iron fist], this kid is about to run away from home or attempt suicide or do something else drastic. But ...every time I suggest ... loosening up, they patiently explain to me that I just don’t understand their religious obligation, as Mormon parents, to keep this kid in line. Frankly, I don’t know how to deal with this.” ...

“Here’s what you do. First, tell them ... you have developed a real curiosity about the Mormon religion. ... Then ... [ask about the] ‘war in heaven’ ...”

A few days later he called. “Carl, ... You wouldn’t believe the response. Even the rebellious teenage kid promised to give me a copy of some book ... with the family picture in the front. Then I said ... What was this war in heaven? Well, the mom ... launched into some story about a council in heaven and two plans and she gets about three minutes into it and she stops cold in her tracks and gives me a funny look and says, ‘All right, Doctor, you’ve made your point: From that moment on they were like putty in my hands. It was like magic. Carl, what is this war in heaven?’”

Of course, there was no magic. This good LDS woman simply had the unnerving experience of explaining Satan’s plan to an “investigator” and, in the midst of her explanation, recognizing it as substantially her own version of responsible Mormon parenting as she had outlined it to him the week before. She understood the gospel principle fully; she just had been blinded to its applicability to her everyday challenges as a parent.

(Carlfred Broderick, My Parents Married on a Dare, 87–89)

Quotes

Jeffrey R. Holland: I love what Elder Orson F. Whitney once said: “The spirit of the gospel is optimistic; it trusts in God and looks on the bright side of things. The opposite or pessimistic spirit drags men down and away from God, looks on the dark side, murmurs, complains, and is slow to yield obedience.”⁶ We should honor the Savior’s declaration to “be of good cheer.”⁷ (Indeed, it seems to me we may be more guilty of breaking that commandment than almost any other!) Speak hopefully. Speak encouragingly, including about yourself. Try not to complain and moan incessantly. As someone once said, “Even in the golden age of civilization someone undoubtedly grumbled that everything looked too yellow.”

I have often thought that Nephi’s being bound with cords and beaten by rods must have been more tolerable to him than listening to Laman and Lemuel’s constant murmuring.⁸ Surely he must have said at least once, “Hit me one more time. I can still hear you.” Yes, life has its problems, and yes, there are negative things to face, but please accept one of Elder Holland’s maxims for living—no misfortune is so bad that whining about it won’t make it worse.
