3. When did Lehi leave Jerusalem?

The Book of Mormon begins “in the commencement of the first year of the reign of Zedekiah, king of Judah” (1 Ne. 1:4). Nephi said the Messiah would come “six hundred years from the time that my father left Jerusalem” (1 Ne. 10:4; 19:8; 2 Ne. 25:19). Later, we read that “six hundred years from the time that Lehi left Jerusalem” the sign of Jesus’ birth was given (3 Ne. 1:1, 15). However, scholars agree that Zedekiah became king in 597 BC. If Jesus was born in 5/4 BC, he was born only 592 years later. If Jesus was born in 1 BC, only 596 years would have passed.

Some LDS scholars assume Zedekiah really started in 601/600 BC and Jesus was born in 1 BC without responding directly to scholarly evidence and reasoning for 597 BC. Some who accept 597 BC have suggested that if the “Nephite year” was only 360 days as in some ancient Egyptian and Mesoamerican (e.g., Mayan) calendars, Lehi left in 597 BC and Jesus was born 600 “Nephite years” later in 5/4 BC. Others suggest that Lehi left Jerusalem before Zedekiah became king in 597 BC. Some believe Jesus was born in 5/4 BC and Lehi left 600 years earlier (604 BC). Others believe Jesus was born in 1 BC and Lehi left in 601 BC.

5. Jehoiakim (609–598 BC)

“In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim” the Lord told Jeremiah to tell the people to repent or Jerusalem would be destroyed and “desolate without inhabitant.” The priests were angry and wanted to kill Jeremiah. Some elders defended Jeremiah saying, Micah, Urijah, “as well as many others” said the same things. Jeremiah’s life was spared, but Urijah was executed (Jer. 26; Josephus, Ant. 10.87 or X 6:2).

In “the first year of the reign of Zedekiah [Jehoiakim] ... there came many prophets, prophesying unto the people that they must repent, or the great city Jerusalem must be destroyed” (1 Ne 1:4). Later, Lehi prophesied that “Jerusalem... should be destroyed...; many should perish by the sword, and many should be carried away captive into Babylon” (1 Ne. 1:13). However, Laman and Lemuel did not “believe that Jerusalem... could be destroyed according to the words of the prophets” (1 Ne. 2:13).

Before 605 BC no captives had been taken and Jerusalem was safe.

6. Jeremiah: Wicked will be punished and scattered

3:¹ If a man put away his wife, and she ... become another man’s, shall he return unto her again? ... but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD. ...² Thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness. ³ Therefore ... there hath been no latter rain; ...

5:²⁵ Your iniquities have turned away [the rain], and your sins have withholden good things from you.

6:¹⁹ I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words.

7:⁸ Ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. ⁹ Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; ¹⁰ And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? ¹¹ Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes?

9:⁹ Shall I not <punish> them for these things? saith the LORD: ...

¹¹ I will make Jerusalem , and a den of <jackals>; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant. ... ¹⁶ I will scatter them also among <nations that> neither they nor their fathers have known:

16:4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be ... buried; ... and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; ... ¹⁰ When thou shalt <tell> this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, <Why> hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? ...¹³ Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not ...; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not <show> you favour.

7. Jeremiah: Return to the Lord and be blessed

3:¹¹ The LORD said unto me, ...¹² say, Return ... and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful. ...¹³ Only acknowledge ... ye have not obeyed my voice. ...¹⁴ Turn ... for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:¹⁵ And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. ...¹⁸ In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

7:⁴ Trust ye not in lying words. ...⁵ <If you really change your ways and your actions and deal with each other justly,> ⁶ If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood ... neither walk after other gods to your hurt:⁷ Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

17:²¹ Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day ...²² neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day,...²⁴ If ye diligently hearken unto me, ...²⁵ Then ... this city shall remain for ever.

8. Jeremiah: Hearken not to false prophets

14:¹³ Then said [Jeremiah], ... the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.¹⁴ Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and <idolatries>, and the <delusions of their own minds>.¹⁵ ... I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

23:⁹ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; ...¹¹ For both prophet and priest are <godless>; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness. ...¹⁴ I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom. ...¹⁵ Therefore ... I will feed them <bitter food>, and make them drink <poisoned> water: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is <ungodliness> gone forth into all the land.¹⁶ Thus saith the LORD ..., Hearken not unto the words of the prophets: ... they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.¹⁷ They say ... Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

9. Jeremiah: The LORD will gather his flock.

16:¹⁴ The days come, saith the LORD, that ...¹⁶ I will send for many fishers ... and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain.

23:² Thus saith the LORD ...³ I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.⁴ And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.⁵ ... The days come ... that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall <do what is just and right> in the earth.⁶ In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name ... THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.⁷ Therefore, ... the days come ... that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out ... of Egypt;

30:³ The days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah ... and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

31:⁶ There shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, ... let us go up to Zion unto the LORD. ...¹⁰ He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock. ...³¹ The days come ... that I will make a new covenant with ... Israel, and ... Judah: ...³³ I will put my law in their <minds>, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.³⁴ And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor ... saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, ... for I will forgive ... [and] remember their sin no more.

10. Nebuchadnezzar defeated Egyptians (605 BC)

First captives: Nebuchadnezzar defeated the Egyptians at Carchemish in May-June 605 BC and “settled the affairs of Egypt, and the other countries” apparently without other battles. When he learned his father was dead, and he sent “captive Jews, and Phoenicians, and Syrians ... to Babylon” and hurried to Babylon to be crowned king in September 605 BC (Josephus, Ant 10.219 or X.11.1; HBC-2, 252–3, ¶431). Daniel said Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem and took treasures and some captives of the royal family and the nobility. Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah were taken captive and given new names: Belteshazzar, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. (Dan. 1:1–6).

Jeremiah: 25:⁸ Thus saith the LORD ...; Because ye have not heard my words,⁹ Behold, I will send ... Nebuchadrezzar ..., my servant, ... against this land, ... and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them. ...¹⁰ I will take from them ... the voice of gladness. ...¹¹ And this whole land shall be a desolation, ... and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.¹² ... When seventy years are accomplished, ... I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, ... and will make it perpetual desolations.

Jeremiah's first time in prison: About this time, Jeremiah preached against idolatry and prophesied that many would die by the sword and the Jerusalem would be desolate. He then broke a potter's bottle as a visual aid. Jeremiah was arrested, beaten, and put in stocks overnight. (Jer 19–20).

Prisons or places of detention were called Beth ha-keli (house of detention), Beth haasourim (house of those in chains), Beth hamah-pecheth (house of stocks), and Bor (cistern, dungeon).

Less than 10 years later as Nephi and his brothers returned to Jerusalem to get Ishmael's family, Nephi said Jeremiah had been “cast in prison” (1 Ne 7:14).

11. Jehoiakim began paying tribute (604 BC)

“In the spring of ... [604 BC], Nebuchadrezzar called out his army for an expedition to Syria where for six months they marched about unopposed. During this time the heads of the various small states of Syria and Palestine, which at this time are included in the term Hatti, were forced to submit to Babylonian rule and to bring in tribute. The [Babylonian] chronicler claims that ‘all the kings of Hatti’ came before Nebuchadrezzar.... It is likely that among the kings who submitted at this time were the rulers of Damascus, Tyre, and Sidon and Jehoiakim of Judah, who was to be a faithful vassal for three years” (Wiseman, Chronicles, 28). When Jehoiakim became a Babylonian vassal, Nebuchadrezzar may have changed his throne name to Zedekiah to reflect his servitude and allegiance to Babylon instead of Egypt.

Jehoiakim burned Jeremiah’s roll or book: In “the fifth year of Jehoiakim” (604 BC) Jeremiah “read the book... of his predictions of what was to befall the city, and the temple, and the multitude.” (Josephus, Ant. 10.88 or X.6.2). Jehoiakim burned the book saying “Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?” (Jer 36:29)

12. Jehoiakim rebelled; no tribute (601 BC)

When Jehoiakim heard “that the king of the Babylonians made an expedition against the Egyptians, he did not pay his tribute. ... Jeremiah foretold every day, how vainly they relied on their hopes from Egypt, and how the city would be overthrown by the king of Babylon, and Jehoiakim the king would be subdued by him. But ... the multitude and the rulers gave their votes for his condemnation, but the elders refused ... for they said that he was not the only person who foretold what would come to the city, but that Micah signified the same before him, as well as many others, none of which suffered any thing of the kings that then reigned, but were honored as the prophets of God. So they mollified the multitude ... and delivered Jeremiah from the punishment.” (Josephus, Ant., 10.88 or X.6.2)

When Jehoiakim rebelled after 3 years, “the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, ... Syrians, ... Moabites, ... and ... the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servants the prophets” (2 Kgs. 24:2). Nebuchadrezzar’s “people are referred to as Chaldeans by Judaeans and later Greek sources.” Josephus said, “when Nebuchadrezzar had ... reigned 4 years ... the eighth of Jehoiakim... [Nebuchadrezzar] made an expedition with mighty forces against the Jews, and required tribute of Jehoiakim, and threatened upon his refusal to make war against him. He was affrighted ..., and bought his peace with money, and brought the tribute he was ordered to bring for three years” (Ant. 10.87 or X.6.1). This appears to be the first time Nebuchadrezzar invaded Jerusalem (Wiseman, 29, 30).

13. Jehoiakim killed; Jehoiachin king (598–597 BC)

Second captives: Jehoiakim again refused to pay tribute. “The king of Babylon made an expedition against Jehoiakim, ... He slew ... [many, including] king Jehoiakim, whom he commanded to be thrown before the walls, without any burial; and made his son Jehoiachin king; ... he also took [3000] principal persons in dignity for captives ... to Babylon; among which was the prophet Ezekiel, who was then but young. ... Jehoiachin ... reigned three months and ten days” (Ant 10.87 or X.6.1–3).

14. Zedekiah was made king (597 BC)

Three months later, Nebuchadrezzar “besieged Jerusalem ... and seized it on” 15/16 March 597 BC and “appointed a king of his own choice ... named Mattaniah whose official name was ... changed to Zedekiah. This change also served as a public testimony to the subservient position held by Zedekiah on oath to Nebuchadrezzar ‘that he would certainly keep the kingdom for him and make no innovation, nor have any league of friendship with the Egyptians.’” (Wiseman, 33–4)

Third captives: Nebuchadrezzar took “all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king’s house.... And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even [10,000] captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.... All the men of might ... that were strong and apt for war... [were taken] to Babylon” (2 Kgs 24:13–16).

Lehi’s family and Laban would have been taken captive. Lehi “dwelt at Jerusalem” and owned gold, silver, and precious things. His sons were strong. Nephi was a skilled craftsman or smith. Laban was a “mighty man” who commanded “fifty” and met regularly with the “elders of the Jews.” His servant had the keys to his treasury.

15. Jeremiah’s letter of counsel to the exiles (70 years)

29:⁴ Thus saith the LORD ... ⁵ Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; ⁶ Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters ... that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. ⁷ And seek the peace of the city ... and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. ⁸ ... Let not your prophets ... deceive you. ... ⁹ For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them. ... ¹⁰ After seventy years ... I will ... perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. ... ¹² Then shall ye ... pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. ¹³ And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

16. Jeremiah to Zedekiah: Submit or die (594 BC)

27:² Thus saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck. ... ⁶ Now have I given all these lands into ... Nebuchadrezzar ... my servant. ... ⁸ The nation ... which will not ... put their neck under [his] yoke ..., will I punish ... with the sword, ... famine, and ... pestilence. ... ¹¹ But the nations that bring their neck under [his] yoke ... will I let remain still in their own land. ... ¹² I spake also to Zedekiah ... saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

17. False prophets preach rebellion (594 BC)

28:¹ Hananiah ... spake unto me in the [temple], in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, ² Thus speaketh the LORD ... saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³ Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD’s house, that Nebuchadrezzar ... took ... to Babylon: ⁴ And I will bring again to this place <Jehoiachin> ... with all the captives. ... ¹⁰ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off ... Jeremiah’s neck, and brake it. ¹¹ And ... [said], Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadrezzar ... from the neck of all nations. ...

¹⁴ [Jeremiah said,] thus saith the LORD ... I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadrezzar. ... ¹⁵ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, ... The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶ Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.¹⁷ So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

18. Nephi's prophesy (c. 593 BC)

If Lehi left in 601 BC, they arrived in Bountiful in 593 BC, eight years later (1 Ne. 17:4–5). There Nephi said, the people of Jerusalem “have become wicked... I know that the day must surely come that they must be destroyed, save a few only, who shall be led away into captivity” (1 Ne. 14:43). “Many” were taken captive earlier in 597 BC as Lehi had prophesied and “few” were taken captive later in 586 BC (Jer 52:29) as Nephi prophesied.

19. Zedekiah stopped paying tribute (589 BC)

37:⁵ Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. ...⁷ Thus saith the LORD, ... Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah ... Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

34:² Thus saith the LORD ... [tell] Zedekiah ... I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:³ And thou shalt not escape ... but shalt surely be ... delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, ... and thou shalt go to Babylon.⁴ ... Thou shalt not die by the sword:

I will bring [Zedekiah] to Babylon ... yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. (Ezek 12:13)

20. Zedekiah put Jeremiah in prison (589–586 BC)

38:¹ Shephatiah ... heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken ... saying,² Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, .. famine, and ... pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live. ...³ This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army. ...⁴ Therefore the princes said ... let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war ... and ... all the people, ... for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. ...⁶ Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon ... that was in the court of the prison. ... And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire. ...¹³ So they ... took him up out of the dungeon. ...²⁸ Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

21. Jerusalem destroyed again (586 BC)

39:¹ Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. ...⁴ Zedekiah ... and all the men of war ... fled. ...⁵ But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah ... and ... brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar. ...⁶ Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah ... before his eyes: ... [and] all the nobles of Judah.⁷ Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

Temple destroyed: 25:⁸ A servant of the king ...⁹ burnt the <temple> ... the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem. ...¹⁰ And ... brake down the walls of Jerusalem.¹¹ ... The people that were left ... [were taken captive]¹² But ... [he] left of the poor ... to be vinedressers and husbandmen. (2 Kgs 25:8–12) They took temple items made of bronze, silver, and gold.

Fourth captives: In his 19th year, Nebuchadnezzar carried away an unspecified number of captives. (HBC-2, p. 260, ¶444)

Lehi: In the Promised Land (c. 588–570 BC), Lehi said “I have seen a vision, in which I know that Jerusalem is destroyed; and had we remained in Jerusalem we should also have perished.” (2 Ne 1:4)

Quotes

Ezra Taft Benson: (Excerpts from “Fourteen Fundamentals in Following the Prophet,” BYU, 26 Feb 1980, speeches.byu.edu)

5. The prophet is not required to have any particular earthly training or credentials to speak on any subject or act on any matter at any time.
7. The prophet tells us what we need to know, not always what we want to know.
9. The prophet can receive revelation on any matter—temporal or spiritual.
10. The prophet may be involved in civic matters.
12. The prophet will not necessarily be popular with the world or the worldly.
14. The living prophet and the first presidency—follow them and be blessed; reject them and suffer.

Stephen R. Covey: “Whatever lies at the center of a person's life, ... becomes the primary source” for one's security, guidance, wisdom/knowledge, and power (The Divine Center, 19). He lists several possible centers for our life. All but the Divine center are “false gods” we worship or “broken cisterns” that hold no water.

1. Spouse centeredness: If this important relationship is the center, differences can result in bitterness and hatred. God's commandments and covenants might be ignored.
2. Work or money making centeredness: When this is the center, one might break commandments or neglect God, family and church.
3. Possession centeredness: When one's worth is determined by possessions, he may be angry or suicidal if his efforts to get and protect things are not successful.
4. Pleasure centeredness: Too much pleasure seeking can result in an unproductive or wasted life.
5. Leader centeredness: When our faith is in the teachings of a political leader, a self-improvement guru, or a bishop, our house is built on sandy soil. If they fall, we fall.
6. Friend centeredness: People may do what is wrong to make or keep friends. If they become possessive, jealous, or controlling, they will repel those they wish to attract.
7. Enemy centeredness: When one often reviews how he has been wronged, his enemy controls his thoughts and actions. It is like drinking poison and waiting for his enemy to die.
8. Self centeredness: The desire to get our own way may result ignoring or taking advantage of others.
9. Church centeredness: “The Church is a means to an end, not an end in itself” (p. 52). If we are very active, we may be neglecting God, family, neighbors, and work.
10. Family centeredness: This may result in “the loss of the family.” One may “resent Church demands and callings and may become a law unto himself in judging and turning down properly inspired calls.” (p. 61–62)
11. The Divine center: When we seek to know and do God's will, our security, guidance, wisdom, and power will come from God. We will be more effective in other areas or our lives.

Joseph: “The time has arrived when the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has set his hand again the second time to recover the remnants of his people ... and with them to bring in the fullness of the Gentiles, and establish that covenant with them, which was promised when their sins should be taken away. See Isaiah 6: Romans 6:25, 26 and 27, and also Jeremiah 31:31, 32 and 33. This covenant has never (before) been established with the house of Israel, nor with the house of Judah ...” (TPJS 14)
